WHAT WE DID IN MARCH

Wow! What a busy month we had in March! We talked about spring and spent a lot of time exploring bugs and flowers, real and pretend. We enjoyed the flower market in the dramatic play area, where children made bouquets, practiced buying and selling, organizing, and participated in all kinds of conversations. Ruth, from the Wilmette Library, paid us a visit. This month, we had a week of color exploration, when we made our own color wheel with pipe cleaners, explored Magnetiles on the light table and experimented with color and eyedroppers. We mixed blue, red and white at the easel with paintbrushes and discovered a new color. The letters V, M and N were also introduced.

Special thanks to Kelly Jackson for our “Hurray for Broadway” introduction and sharing artifacts from the Mary Poppins Broadway production!

WHAT WILL WE DO IN APRIL

In April, we’ll be focusing on Earth Day and nature, and we’ll continue to talk about spring. We will learn about recycling and taking care of our Earth, and we’ll bring in nature through herb play dough, a garden sensory bin, and a planting project. Expect to see a large item coming home this month: we’ll be making a recycled construction project! We’ll talk about the letters W, X, Y and Z.

ASK ME ABOUT...

- our flower market! What was my favorite part? What else did we do with flowers?
- our experiment with milk, food coloring, soap and eye droppers. What did we do?
- spring! What can I tell you? What is happening outside now?
